Most Important Shot:

In a tied game Canadian Fourth GUSHUE B takes early control with his perfect last stone Raise Tap-back to score two and swing the game in his favour. The previous shot by the US was almost perfect, making the shot from GUSHUE B very difficult, however, it was executed to perfection and gave Canada the command of the game which they never released.

Most Important Shot:

With lots of stones in play after opening the game with several clean ends, the teams exchanged Double Take-outs early in the end as the advantage shifted back and forth. Playing his final stone of the end, British Skip MURDOCH D raised one of his own stones to the shot nearly frozen to a Finnish stone and with a bite of the button. Finnish Skip UUSIPAAVALNIEMI M then made a precise angle Raise to push the British shot stone just far enough for a score of two in a close game.

The draw slipped too far and gave Finland a steal of three to take early control of the game.
